PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Human Resources, Care and Education

Dr Julie's empathetic nature has paved her career direction in the care and education profession. From her early career as a psychological counsellor in the education sector, to human resources in heavy industry, and to the last 25 years as a small business owner in consulting, training, counselling and coaching across a very diverse range of organisations, groups and individuals, on varied topics and issues, Julie has been able to respect, listen, synthesise, and give hope to clients both in a business setting and in a family and community setting seamlessly.

Business Acumen and Business Operations

Anticipating, meeting and exceeding clients' needs is paramount to Julie's business success. Consistent positive feedback from clients demonstrates Julie's commitment to go above and beyond for each and every interaction, project, session, seminar and more. Her extensive client list across broad industry groups, all levels of government, NGOs, community groups, as well as individual, couple and families, is impressive. Feedback can be viewed here

Communications

Dr Julie is a clear communicator across all forms and channels of communication including: traditional methods and digital platforms – correspondence (letters, emails, texts, memos); training and educational resources (talks, seminars, workshops, lectures, webinars, group therapy); briefing material (resumes, tenders, proposals, reports, patents); academic texts (theses, articles, books), marketing information (website, brochures, blogs, you tube, WeChat, LinkedIn) and more.
